DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 38-65 are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior art (Aggarwal:US Patent Numbers: 6,356,879 and 6,307,965) was found which discloses tracking user behaviors on a website based on the web pages browsed and the products purchased, forming peer groups based on the tracked user behaviors, and making recommendations to the peer groups based on the tracked user behaviors. Aggarwal (U.S. Patent Number: 6,307,965) further discloses analyzing information stored in a computer data base by detecting clusters of related or correlated values. Prior Art (Zaine et al, "Discovering Web Access Patterns and Trends by Applying OLAP and Data Mining Technology on Web Logs", Proceedings of the Advances in Digital Libraries Conference, April 22-24, pp. 19-29), discloses gathering and storing information in a database including the domain name from which the request originated. However, these prior art disclosures are directed towards displaying on the web page at which a user has arrived items that members of the peer groups have an interest in based upon the data gathered for the group. The prior art does not disclose causing the display of a set of items, corresponding to user activity data of both the members of the group and the non-members of the group, on a web site that is a subset of websites that make referrals to the website operating the claimed method. It is important to note that the claimed method causes the set of items to be displayed on a referring web site in said subset of referring web sites, regardless of whether any user visits the referring web site to see the displayed items. The claimed displaying in the claims is connected to a claimed referral website and is not directed towards a user or specific set of users.

Any comments considered necessary by the applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
